Quotation information

All services and rates are subject to availability at time of confirmation.

Colombia57 works to maintain consistency in its pricing policy but all rates and services are subject to changes, increases and alterations imposed by 3rd part suppliers.

For some services (flights and certain hotel bookings), reservations can only be held without full payment for a very limited time period (on occasion as short as 24 hours) after this prices are subject to change. The company cannot be held liable for price changes effected by these circumstances. Every effort will be made to alert the client to prices or services that may be affected by this occurrence.

Any quote will be valid for a period of 14 days from the date the quote is dispatched. After this time period the company reserves the right change a quote in any way it feels necessary.

A condition of booking is that all clients obtain comprehensive travel insurance from their country of residence that covers them fully for travel in Colombia and the activities and tours that they will undertake. Failure to prove such insurance may lead to a tour being cancelled without refund. It is the responsibility of agents using our services that they ensure the relevant insurance criteria have been met for their clients.

Colombia57 also reserves the right to alter any quotation or price if there is any significant change in the exchange rate used to calculate any selling rates.

Please check for full cancelation terms and conditions. Many services carry cancelation penalties
