DAY 06 – 05 JAN 20 – RANTHAMBORE – AGRA BY: SURFACE (260 KMS / 06 HRS)

After breakfast, you'll be transferred to Agra en-route visiting Fatehpur Sikri (a UNESCO World Heritage Site). Built in the 16th century, this ancient fortified city was once the capital of the Mughal Empire. Built preferably with red sandstone, the architecture of the city reflects both Hindu and Muslim forms of domestic architecture, popular during that time. It can be accessed through five gates including Buland Darwaza, and features many important buildings like the Jama Masjid, Tomb of Salim Chisti, Diwan-i-Aam, Diwan-i-Khas, and Panch Mahal among others. Upon arrival in Agra, check into the hotel and freshen up. Later proceed to visit the massive Agra Fort (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), an elegant building that reflects a perfect fusion of the Hindu and Central Asian architectural styles with massive courtyards, mosques & private chambers. A historical fort, it served as the main residence of the emperors of the Mughal Dynasty until 1638, when the capital was shifted from Agra to Delhi. In the evening visit Mehtab Bagh. Overnight stay at hotel.

DAY 07 – 06 JAN 20 – AGRA – DELHI BY: SURFACE (260 KMS / 06 HRS)

Early morning proceeds to visit Taj Mahal an unmatched beauty, the Taj Mahal is one of the seven wonders in the world. Built as a tomb for his beloved wife Mumtaz Mahal by Shah Jahan, the Taj depicts mute tales of the profound love story between the emperor and his beloved wife. (Note: Taj Mahal will be closed on every Friday)

Later return back to hotel for breakfast. After breakfast check out from hotel and drive to Delhi. Upon arrival check in to hotel. Evening free at leisure. Overnight stay at hotel.

DAY 08 – 07 JAN 20 – DELHI SIGHTSEEING

Have breakfast and then set out for Delhi city sightseeing tour. You'll first go for Old Delhi sightseeing, starting with Jama Masjid, the country's largest mosque. Completed in 1656 AD, the mosque features three gates, four towers and two towering minarets. Constructed with strips of red sandstone and white marble, the mosque's courtyard is capable of holding 25,000 devotees at once. The iconic mosque is one of the last monuments built under Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan. Next, visit Old Delhi's oldest and biggest market Chandni Chowk. Later, enjoy a rickshaw ride from Fatehpuri Masjid to the impressive red sandstone monument of Red Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Here, our driver will pick you up and drive you to Raj Ghat, the cremation site of Mahatma Gandhi. It is a black marble platform that marks the spot of Gandhi's cremation, Antyeshti (Antim Sanskar) on 30 January 1948, a day after his assassination. It is left open to the sky while an eternal flame burns at one end. Located on Delhi's Ring Road, officially known as Mahatma Gandhi Road, a stone footpath flanked by lawns leads to the walled enclosure that houses the memorial. Later, we will tour New Delhi and drive past Rashtrapati Bhawan (President's House), Parliament House, and India Gate – a war memorial constructed in memory of 70,000 Indian soldiers who fought in World War I. Afternoon visit New Delhi which include, Humayun's Tomb (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), an early example of fine Mughal architecture in India, built in 1565. Humayun's Tomb is often said to be the inspiration behind the Taj Mahal. Commissioned by Emperor Humayun's first wife, Empress Bega Begum, it was the first garden-styled tomb on the Indian subcontinent. The complex encompasses the main tomb of second Mughal Emperor Humayun, which houses the graves of Empress Bega Begum, Hamida Begum, and also Dara Shikoh- Shah Jahan's eldest son, as well as numerous other subsequent Mughal Emperors. Then, visit Qutub Minar (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), a soaring tower of victory. The marble and red sandstone-built structure is nearly 73 meters tall and tapers from a 15-meter-diameter base to just 2.5 meters at the top and contains a spiral staircase of 379 steps. Built in the 11th century, the design of the monument is inspired by the Minaret of Jam, in western Afghanistan. Overnight stay at hotel.
