- Paris needs no introduction. It's synonymous with food, culture, fashion, and architecture, rarely disappointing those who visit. Despite being the dream destination for millions of people each year, the French capital still has plenty hidden secrets to offer. Paris' monument-lined boulevards, museums, classical bistros and boutiques are now enhanced by a new wave of multimedia galleries, creative wine bars, design shops and tech start-ups.
- Iconic Architecture : The cloud-piercing, wrought-iron Eiffel Tower, broad Arc de Triomphe guarding the glamorous avenue des Champs-Élysées, gargoyled Notre Dame cathedral, lamplit bridges spanning the Seine and art nouveau cafes' wicker-chair-lined terraces are enduring Parisian emblems. Despite initial appearances, however, Paris' cityscape isn't static: there are some stunning modern and contemporary icons, too, from the inside-out, industrial-style Centre Pompidou to the mur végétal (vertical garden) gracing the Musée du Quai Branly, the glass sails of the Fondation Louis Vuitton contemporary-art centre, and the gleaming steel egg-shaped concert venue La Seine Musicale.
- Glorious Food : France's reputation for its cuisine (the French word for 'cooking') precedes it, and whether you seek a cosy neighbourhood bistro or a triple-Michelin-starred temple to gastronomy, you'll find that every establishment prides itself on exquisite preparation and presentation of quality produce, invariably served with wine. Enticing patisseries, boulangeries (bakeries), fromageries (cheese shops) and crowded, colourful street markets are perfect for putting together a picnic to take to the city's beautiful parks and gardens. A host of culinary courses – held anywhere from home kitchens to the world's most prestigious cookery schools – offers instruction for all schedules, abilities and budgets.
- Stylish Shopping : Parisians are synonymous with style, and fashion shopping is the city's forte. Paris remains at the forefront of international trends, and browsing emerging and established designer boutiques and flagship haute couture houses is a quintessential part of any visit. You'll also find hip concept and homewares shops, and resplendent art nouveau department stores, along with a trove of vintage shops and flea markets, atmospheric bookshops and dark-green bouquiniste stalls stocking secondhand titles lining the riverbanks, adorable children's wear and toy shops, art and antique dealers, venerable establishments selling professional cookware, and, of course, gourmet-food and wine shops galore.
- Artistic Treasures : With an illustrious artistic pedigree – Renoir, Rodin, Picasso, Monet, Manet, Dalí and Van Gogh are but a few of the masters who have lived and worked here over the years – Paris is one of the great art repositories of the world, harbouring treasures from antiquity onward. In addition to big hitters like the incomparable Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay's exceptional impressionist collection, and the Centre Pompidou's cache of modern and contemporary art, scores of smaller museums showcase every imaginable genre, a diverse range of venues mount major exhibitions through to offbeat installations, and there's also the city's vibrant street art.

We will send you a Road Book by PDF before your arrival. Inside you will find numerous ideas for visits and activities to optimize your trip.

We can also organize and propose extra guided visits. Do not hesitate to ask us for suggestions.

Rest of the day at leisure.

Brimming over with charm and character, the six towns of Loire Valley will delight you with their picturesque architecture and their authenticity.

Four of them - Orléans, Blois, Amboise and Tours - are set on the banks of Europe's last untamed river, listed as World Heritage by UNESCO.

They reflect the history of the kings of France and still have a very close bond with the Loire, which was for a long time France's main economic artery.

Chartres and Bourges also have plenty to interest you! With their cathedrals, also listed as World Heritage, and their pedestrian streets bordered by half-timbered houses, these two medieval towns are absolutely ideal for a stroll. Nestling on the left bank of the Loire, Amboise has kept traces of its royal past. In summer the town's majestic Château with its terraces overlooking the Loire Valley is cleverly illuminated.

Gasp in wonderment when you see the fairytale aspect of Chambord, the purity of Chenonceau or the proud bearing of Château d'Amboise standing over the Loire River. Contemplate the colourful landscapes from the top of Chartres and Bourges Cathedrals. Discover the royal river during a boat trip by taking the famous Briare canal-bridge over the Loire. Make the journey to Nohant to soak up the atmosphere of George Sand's novels. The Loire Valley is brimming over with ideas for excursions: the region's many treasures are just waiting to reveal all their secrets, whether you come for a day, a weekend or longer holidays.

We will send you a Road Book by PDF before your arrival. Inside you will find numerous ideas for visits and activities to optimize your trip.

We can also organize and propose extra guided visits. Do not hesitate to ask us for suggestions.

Day 6 - 29 September 2020

AMBOISE - LOIRE VALLEY - AMBOISE

In the morning, make your own way to the meeting point for your tour.

Chambord, Chenonceau and lunch at the Château (small group tour of 8 people max. / full day)

Discover the Loire Valley and visit its 2 most prestigious castles in one great day: impressive Château de Chambord and stunning Château de Chenonceau. Learn about the intimate little secrets of the French Kings who once lived there. Enjoy off-the-crowd panoramic views thanks to your local guide, benefit from wealth of thrilling genuine details and funny anecdotes and make the most of this exciting day. One of the highlights will definitely be a restful lunch away from tourist groups in a beautiful privately-owned chateau still inhabited by the family.

What's included:

Transportation in minivan.

Tastings.

Lunch at the chateau.

After the tour, the guide brings you back to the meeting point.

Day 7 - 30 September 2020 AMBOISE - SARLAT LA CANEDA

Rest of the day at leisure.

A picturesque tangle of honey-coloured buildings, alleyways and secret squares make up the beautiful town of Sarlat-la-Canéda. Boasting some of the region's best-preserved medieval architecture, it's a popular base for exploring the Vézère Valley, and a favourite location for film directors. It's also firmly on the tourist radar, and you might find it difficult to appreciate the town's charms among the summer throngs, especially on market days.

markets sell a smorgasbord of goose-based products, and Sarlat hosts an annual goose festival, the Fest'Oie (early March), when live birds and market stalls fill the streets, and Sarlat's top chefs prepare an outdoor banquet.

We will send you a Road Book by PDF before your arrival. Inside you will find numerous ideas for visits and activities to optimize your trip.

We can also organize and propose extra guided visits. Do not hesitate to ask us for suggestions.

Day 8 - 1 October 2020

SARLAT - DORDOGNE - SARLAT

Morning at leisure.

In the afternoon, make your own way to the meeting point for your tour.

The Vezere valley and Lascaux (small group or private / approx. 4 hours)

Prehistoric Sites Like You've Never Seen Them Before !

Discover brand-new Lascaux IV International Center of Parietal Art. The museum is a triumph of technology: unlike any other cave visits, Lascaux 4 employs different set designs, displays, state-of-the-art interactive workshops and immersive technology to bring it to life. For the very first time, all of Lascaux cave is revealed. This new center features an interactive gallery experience that blends Art, History and Culture with intelligence and sensitivity. At the heart of the experience you will discover a life size, state of the art facsimile cave that reveals the wonders of Lascaux as they were first seen.

In 2018, the museum was listed on Time Magazine's 100 Greatest Places to visit saying: "The Snohetta-designed complex features some 600 prehistoric paintings and 1,000 engravings, all painstakingly re-created by a team of two dozen artists working from physical castings and advanced 3-D digital scans of the original artwork!"

After the visit and some time for personal discovery, the tour will also take you along the Vezere Valley for stops in Les Eyzies and Saint Léon village.

What's included :

Conducted by certified guides

All entrance fees, tasting fees mentioned are included

What's not included :

Meals and drinks

Personal insurance and expenses

Gratuities for the guide

After the tour, the guide brings you back to the meeting point.

Day 9 - 2 October 2020

Rest of the day at leisure.

Avignon invites you for a stay beyond all imagination. The historic city centre, the Popes' Palace, all the episcopal buildings and the Saint Bénézet Bridge are listed as world heritage sites by UNESCO. The historic centre radiates from the Place de l'Horloge.

Here, you find the City Hall built between 1845 and 1851 over a former cardinal's palace of which it has kept the old fortified tower, transformed into a belfry in the 15th century with clock and Jacquemart. Next to it, the municipal theatre, also from the 19th century, houses the Avignon opera and, all the way at the top, the delightful Belle Époque style carousel still turns.

Originally the forum of Avenio, the city's name under the Romans in the 1st century BC, the Place de l'Horloge is still the "centre" of Avignon. A meeting place, bordered by cafés and restaurants, the square is always bustling. Just like the Place du Palais higher up, a vast esplanade where you could spend the day just watching all the street performers in summer.

And as its name implies, here stands the formidable Popes' Palace, emblem of the city and awe-inspiring monument to the importance of Avignon in the Christian world of the Middle Ages. Built in the 1300s, mainly by two popes - the austere Benedict XII and his successor, the much less ascetic Clement VI, - the palace would become the biggest gothic edifice in all of Europe. A tour of the palace, which includes the popes' private apartments with their fabulous frescoes, is one of the musts of Avignon.

We will send you a Road Book by PDF before your arrival. Inside you will find numerous ideas for visits and activities to optimize your trip.

We can also organize and propose extra guided visits. Do not hesitate to ask us for suggestions.

Day 10 - 3 October 2020 AVIGNON

Day at leisure to explore the region at your own pace.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY:

Total supplement for 2 people: 500 €

In the afternoon, pick up by your guide and his or her vehicle at your accommodation.

Half-day tour in the Cotes du Rhone (private tour / approximately 5 hours)

Discover the picturesque villages and the diversity of the Cotes du Rhone vineyards with this half-day of visit and tasting in the vineyards of your choice. You will be picked up from your hotel in Avignon or its surrounding area by your private driver/guide and transferred to the villages around Châteauneuf du Pape, by far the most prestigious wine-making village in the Rhône Valley. You'll have excellent views of the surrounding mountains, of the Rhône river, and the veritable sea of vines blankets the hills. Along the way, learn all about the centuries-old history of wine-making in the region, and stop in for wine-tastings (at least 2 are included on the half day tour).

Carpets of vineyards unfurl around tiny, medieval Châteauneuf-du-Pape, epicenter of one of the world's great wine-growing regions. Only a small ruin remains of the château, once the summer residence of Avignon's popes, dismantled for stone after the Revolution, and ultimately bombed by Germany in WWII. Now it belongs to picnickers and day hikers, who ascend the hill for 360-degree panoramas of the Rhône Valley. It's an ideal half-day trip for wine tasting and lunch before continuing to Orange.

After the tour, the guide brings you back to your hotel.

Day 11 - 4 October 2020
AVIGNON - NIMES - AVIGNON

In the morning, make your own way to the meeting point for your tour.

Roman sites and historic places (small-group of 8 people max. / approx. 6 hours)

After your pick up in Avignon, your driver/guide will show you the Roman ruins and beautiful historical places of the region.

Highly frequented by military men, merchants and pilgrims during Antiquity and until the Middle-Age; you will discover the foundations of our civilization through the landscapes, the remains, Ugernum, Nemausus to Ambrussum. A half-day trip along the Via Domitia, through the city of Nîmes to Ambrussum.

First stop on your way: Nîmes, referred as the 'French Rome'. Discover the 'Arenes' - visit with audio-guides. You will have a quick glance at the 'Maison Carrée', best preserved temple of the former Roman Empire.

Then, you will discover Uzès, a charming medieval town and first Duchy of France.

Last stop during your half-day trip, 'Le Pont du Gard', one of the largest and best preserved 1st A.D. Roman aqueduct.

What's included:

Transportation in a comfortable minivan.

English-speaking driver/guide.

Entrance fees.

What's not included:

Food and drinks.

Personal expenses.

Gratuities.

After the tour, the guide brings you back to the meeting point.

Rest of the day at leisure.

Lyon is France's second-most important city after Paris and surprisingly undiscovered. Although Lyon doesn't often make it onto tourist itineraries, many cultural treasures await those who take the time to explore the city. With a history dating back to ancient Roman times, Lyon has earned a place on the UNESCO World Heritage list. The city boasts France's oldest ancient ruins, medieval quarters, and fine Renaissance houses. The atmospheric neighborhoods found along the Rhône and Saône Rivers reflect the city's rich heritage. The Quartier Saint-Jean and Colline Croix-Rousse districts have an enchanting Old World character, while the Presqu'île exemplifies 19th-century elegance.

The happiest of all visitors are the ones who journey here to sample the famous cuisine. France's most renowned chef, Paul Bocuse hails from Lyon. His celebrated 3-star Michelin restaurant is a top destination for gourmands. The legendary Lyonnais gastronomy can also be enjoyed all over Lyon at "bouchons," evocative little brasseries.

We will send you a Road Book by PDF before your arrival. Inside you will find numerous ideas for visits and activities to optimize your trip.

We can also organize and propose extra guided visits. Do not hesitate to ask us for suggestions.

Day 13 - 6 October 2020 LYON

In the morning, make your own way to the meeting point for your tour: my tip take the metro, then walk down afterwards.

Gourmet Old Lyon (small group tour of 10 people max. / approx. 2.5 hours)

Explore the Peninsula and the Old Town of Lyon and learn all about the little anecdotes around these historic districts while tasting all the amazing produces that made Lyon the Capital of Gastronomy: pink praline, "Coussin de Lyon", charcuterie, cheeses, wine.... In the heart of the UNESCO listed district of Lyon, your guide passionate by the history of the city and specialized in gastronomy, will show you around in a fun and convivial atmosphere.

Make your own way back after the guided tour to your accommodation or to wherever you want to spend the rest of the day.

Day 14 - 7 October 2020

LYON - INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT

In the morning, pick up at your accommodation by your driver and private transfer to the airport.

International flight. End of our services.

Home, sweet home!

After this date, the services and the price will be updated according to the new prices of our partners. Thank you for your understanding. Date validity of this proposal: September 18, 2019

How to book your trip

So how do you confirm your booking ?

Contact your travel designer by phone or email, and they will send you a booking form. Your travel designer will also send you an email with a secure payment link. This will allow you to safely pay the 30% deposit and the balance by credit card. If you choose to pay via American Express credit card we will be obliged to add 3% to the final amount. Please inform us if you choose to use American Express for your deposit or final payment.

The accommodation options and activities mentioned in the itinerary above are available at the creation of this quotation; the final accommodation and activity options depend on the availability at the moment of payment of the deposit. If an option is unavailable, we will reserve equivalent quality. The earlier that you reserve the tour, the more likelihood that all preferred choices mentioned above will be available.

Spelling of the travelers' full name must be identical to the one on your passport (we accept no responsibility in case of mistake).

After you accept this proposal, we will imperatively need:

Copies of the first page of the passport for all the travelers. Cellphone number that you will use while you are travelling (essential to communicate it to some of the service providers for your trip).

Cancellation Fees?

Objectif France must be informed as soon as possible by email confirming your cancellation. The date of this email is used to calculate any cancellation fees.

More than 30 days before the arrival date. The deposit will be retained, as this corresponds to the payments already made for certain services (non-reimbursable hotels for example).

Less than 30 days before the arrival date: 100 % of total will be retained.

In case of any changes in the number of visitors in your party, the tariff will be revised and adapted to the modified number of people. We advise you to purchase cancellation insurance with your insurance company.

Responsibility

Objectif France strives to satisfy its clients and does the utmost to ensure that each tour runs as smoothly as possible. Despite all the care that Objectif France takes to ensure a smooth and pleasant journey in France, we are not protected from unforeseen circumstances, be they to do with the weather or something else unplanned. If however you do encounter a problem during your trip (for example with your rental car company, your guide, your accommodation or any other related problem), we ask you to call us immediately on 00 33 9 66 96 13 19 or on 00 33 6 76 97 83 44. Do not hesitate to leave a message and we will contact you to try and resolve the problem. All problems should be solved whilst on the trip. Any reclamation made after returning from your tour is more difficult to resolve.

Insurance

Travel Insurance is compulsory on all our trips and is a condition of booking with us. When selecting a travel insurance policy we require that at a minimum you are covered for medical expenses, including emergency repatriation. We strongly recommend that the policy also covers personal liability, cancellation, curtailment and loss of luggage and personal effects.

We also recommend you take out cancellation insurance. This may cover cancellation penalties in certain circumstances if you have to cancel your trip unexpectedly due to illness, injury or unforeseen circumstances. Unfortunately cancellation insurance will not cover you if you change your mind !

Formalities

The first thing to do when preparing a trip is to make sure you have a passport. It must still be valid at least six months after the scheduled end date of your trip.

Also check that you have enough blank pages for the eventual visa (s).

If you do not have a passport yet, you must apply for one. If yours is not valid long enough or is already almost full, you must renew it. Depending on the country visited and your country of origin, either ...

- You will not need a visa and a simple stamp will be issued on your passport when you enter the country (airport, land, river or sea border checkpoints)
- You can get a visa upon arrival in the country (most of the time you will have to pay).
- You will need to obtain a visa before your departure (most of the time you will have to pay) either from the authorities of the country concerned (embassy or consulate) or directly online on a dedicated official website. Beware of fake commercial sites that charge for these visas at a far higher rate than the official sites!

If you have any doubt speak with your Travel Designer.

Sale Conditions :

SPECIAL TERMS OF SALES

1. Registration and payment

All registrations should be accompanied by the payment of a deposit representing from 10% to 40% of the total trip amount. Receipt of the deposit will enable us, among other things, to validate the reservations of certain services (accommodation, transports, ...) that require immediate payment. As soon as the file is confirmed, the client will also be requested to provide information concerning the participant(s) (family name, first name, birth date, passport number) in order to guarantee the reservations. The remaining trip balance must be paid 30 days prior to the actual start of the trip.

2. Payment methods

You can make your payments to Objectif France via credit card, bank transfer or other methods indicated in the section "Your account" on our website.

3. Cancellation fees

Objectif France must be informed as soon as possible by email confirming your cancellation. The date of this email is used to calculate any cancellation fees.

- More than 30 days before the arrival date. The deposit will be retained (35% of the total record), as this corresponds to the payments already made for certain services (non-reimbursable hotels for example).
- From 15 to 30 days before arrival: 50% of total record will be retained.
- Less than 15 days before the arrival date: 100 % of total record will be retained.

In the event that the client changes the number of participants, prices shall be revised and adapted to the new number of participants.

We recommend subscribing to a cancellation contract with your insurer in your country or via your Bank Card.

4. Claims

Any claim concerning a tour (disagreement, portion of the tour not completed, etc.) should be filed by the client with Objectif France. Any dispute that may arise shall be settled by mutual consent. In the event of total disagreement, as Objectif France is a company incorporated in France, the French Court shall be the competent authority. It should be noted that French legislation, as far as tourists are concerned, is among the most efficient and protective in the world for tourists, whether they are of French, European or non-European nationality.

For travellers, it is a guarantee of your rights and legal proceedings in the event of any problems with the Objectif France services.

5. Insurance

Upon accepting to travel with Objectif France, it is mandatory for you to personally subscribe to a repatriation assistance insurance policy.

Most payment cards (bank cards, for example) give entitlement to one or two types of insurance; travel insurance and a medical assistance/repatriation agreement. In the event that you paid for your plane ticket with your Visa card, you are normally insured de facto – you can contact your bank for more information on this matter.

6. Liability

Passports, vaccinations: Objectif France shall not replace each participant's individual liability. Throughout the trip, participants must follow any and all rules and formalities related to health, customs and police. Each participant is personally responsible for obtaining all the documents required by the authorities of the countries to be visited. Objectif France shall not be held responsible for any delay with documents or a participant's incapacity to present valid documents. All fees incurred shall be at the client's expense. Any trip interrupted or cut short by the participant and for whatever cause shall not give rise to any reimbursement whatsoever. Contact the closest French Embassy or Consular's Office for information about customs formalities in effect in Europe and in France.

7. Luggage

Your luggage remains your own, individual responsibility on a permanent basis.

8. Air transportation & Climate

If your trip is changed due to air traffic disruption or inclement weather, we shall not be held responsible. The resulting costs shall be at your expense. Activities cancelled due to inclement weather shall not be reimbursed; an alternative will be offered insofar as possible.

9. Force majeure

If external events were to disrupt the normal operation of the country (ex: social unrest, strikes, etc.), Objectif France reserves the right to cancel a trip or to modify its content. In case of cancellation, the deposit corresponding to the prepayment of the services already booked shall be withheld. In case of a change in itinerary, a new quote shall be made.

10. Prices and Taxes

All our prices are in Euros and tax inclusive, meaning our prices include VAT (value added tax of 20 %), which is mandatory in France.

Acceptance of a tour or a package entails acceptance of our General Terms of Sale.

GENERAL TERMS OF SALES

The current terms and conditions are applicable in relation to the organisation of the sale of trips, stays and/or packages, in compliance with articles R211-3 to R211-11 of the French Code of Tourism, of which the complete reproduction is set out below :

Article R.211-3

Subject to exclusions provided for in the third and fourth paragraphs of Article L. 211-7, any services of offer and sale of trips or holidays give rise to the handing over of appropriate documents that meet regulations defined in this section. In the case of air transport ticket sales or regular line transport tickets that are not accompanied with services linked to this transport, the vendor issues one or several tickets to the purchaser for the entire trip, issued by the transporter or issued under the transporter's liability. In the case of transport by request, the name and address of the transporter, on whose behalf the tickets are issued, must be detailed. Separate invoicing of different elements of the same tourist package does not lead to the vendor being exempt from obligations arising from the statutory provisions of this section.

Article R.211-3-1

Exchange of pre-contractual information or the availability of contractual conditions is carried out in writing. This may take place by electronic means under conditions of validity and performance as provided for in Articles 1369-1 to 1369-11 of the Civil Code. The vendor's name or corporate name and address are mentioned as well as the registration number as provided in Article L. 141-3 or, if applicable, the name, address and registration details of the federation or union mentioned in the second paragraph of Article R. 211-2.

Article R.211-4

Prior to entering into a contract, the vendor must provide the consumer with information on the prices, dates and other constituent elements of the services supplied during a trip or holiday, such as:

- 1° the destination, means, features and category of transport used;
- 2° the accommodation, its location, degree of comfort and main features, its approval and tourist rating corresponding to regulations or customs in the country to be visited;
- 3° catering services offered;
- 4° description of the itinerary if the service purchased is a tour;
- 5° administrative and health formalities to be completed, and the deadlines within which they should be completed, by nationals or citizens of other member countries in the European Union or another State that is part of the agreement on the European economic space, especially in cases where borders are crossed;
- 6° visits, excursions and other services included in the fixed price or possibly available at further cost;
- 7° the minimum and maximum number of participants enabling the trip or holiday to take place and, if the trip or holiday is subject to a minimum number of participants, the deadline upon which the consumer should be informed of the cancellation of the trip or holiday; this date may be set at no less than twenty-one days before the due departure date;
- 8° the amount or percentage of price to be paid as a down payment upon entering the contract and the schedule established for the payment of the balance due;
- 9° the terms upon which prices may be revised, as provided for in the contract pursuant to Article R. 211-8;
- 10° contractual cancellation terms and conditions
- 11° cancellation terms and conditions set out in Articles R.211-9, R.211-10 et R. 211-11;
- 12° information concerning the optional taking out of an insurance policy covering the consequences of certain specific risks, particularly repatriation costs in case of accident or illness;
- 13° when the contract includes air transport services, information for each leg of the flight, as provided for in Articles R. 211-15 to R. 211-18.

Article R.211-5

Prior information given to the consumer binds the vendor, unless in this information the vendor expressly reserves the right to modify certain elements. The vendor should, in this case, clearly indicate how this modification may intervene and what elements may be affected.

In any case, modifications made to prior information should be communicated to the consumer before the contract is entered into.

Article R.211-6

The contract entered into between the vendor and the purchaser must be written, drawn up in two examples, one of which is handed to the purchaser, and signed by both parties. When the contract is entered into electronically, Articles 1369-1 to 1369-11 of the Civil Code are applied. The contract must include the following clauses:

- 1° the name and address of the vendor, its managing director and insurance company as well as the name and address of the organiser;
- 2° the destination or destinations of the trip and, in the case of split holidays, the different periods and dates;
- 3° the means, features and categories of transport used, the dates and points of departure and return;
- 4° the accommodation, its location, degree of comfort and main features, its approval and tourist rating corresponding to regulations or customs in the country to be visited;
- 5° catering services offered;
- 6° description of the itinerary if the service purchased is a tour;
- 7° visits, excursions and other services included in the total price of the trip or holiday;
- 8° the total price of services invoiced and the indication of any possible revision of this invoice on the strength of provisions in Article R. 211-8;
- 9° the indication, if necessary, of charges or taxes relating to certain services, such as landing, disembarking or boarding taxes in airports and ports, visitor's occupancy tax when this has not been included in the price of the service or services supplied
- 10° the schedule and methods of payment of the price; the last instalment made by the purchaser may not be less than 30% of the price of the trip or holiday and must be made at the time the documents enabling the trip or holiday to be undertaken are handed over to the purchaser;
- 11° particular terms and conditions requested by the purchaser and accepted by the vendor;
- 12° the method according to which the purchaser may make a claim against the vendor for the nonperformance or incorrect performance of the contract; such a claim being sent as soon as possible by any means enabling a proof of delivery to the purchaser be obtained, and, if necessary, notified in writing to the organiser of the trip and service provider concerned;
- 13° the deadline when the purchaser is notified if the trip or holiday is cancelled by the vendor in cases when the trip or holiday is reliant upon a minimum number of participants, in compliance with provisions in paragraph 7 of Article R. 211-4;
- 14° contractual cancellation terms and conditions
- 15° cancellation conditions set out in Articles R. 211-9, R. 211-10 and R. 211-11 ;
- 16° details concerning the risks covered and the amount of guarantees in the insurance policy covering the consequences of the vendor's professional public liability;
- 17° information concerning the insurance contract covering the consequences of certain cases of cancellation taken out by the purchaser (policy number and name of the insurer), and information concerning the assistance contract covering certain particular risks, and particularly repatriation costs in case of accident or illness; in this case, the vendor must give the purchaser a document at least detailing the risks covered and risks excluded;
- 18° the deadline on which the purchaser must inform the vendor of any transfer of contract;
- 19° the undertaking to supply the purchaser, at least ten days before the anticipated date of departure, with the following information:
 - a) the name, address and telephone number of the vendor's local representative, or, failing this, the names, addresses and telephone numbers of local organisations likely to help the consumer should any difficulties arise, or, failing this, an emergency telephone number in order to contact the vendor;
 - b) for trips and holidays abroad for minors , a telephone number and address providing direct contact with the child or the person in charge on the site of his/her holiday;
- 20° the cancellation clause and reimbursement without penalties of the sums paid by the purchaser should the obligation of information set out in paragraph 13 of Article R. 211-4 not be met;
- 21° the undertaking to supply the purchaser with the departure and arrival times in due course before the start of the trip or holiday.

Article R.211-7

The purchaser may transfer his/her contract to a transferee who meets the same conditions as him/her to go on the trip or holiday, as long as this contract does not produce any effect. Unless more favourably stipulated to the transferor, the latter should inform the vendor of his/her decision by any means that enables a proof of delivery to be obtained at least seven days before the start of the voyage. When the service sold is a cruise, this deadline is fifteen days. This transfer is not subject, in any case whatsoever, to prior authorization from the vendor.

Article R.211-8

When the contract includes an express possibility of price revision, within limits set out in Article L. 211-12, it should mention the precise method of calculation, for both increases and decreases, in price variation and particularly for the amount of transport charges and related taxes, the currency or currencies that may have an implication on the price of the trip or holiday, the part of the price to which the variation is applied, the rate of the currency or currencies applied as a reference when establishing the price detailed in the contract

Article R.211-9

When, before the purchaser's departure, the vendor is obliged to modify one of the elements that is essential to the contract, such as a significant price increase, and when the vendor disregards the obligation of providing information mentioned in paragraph 13 of Article R. 211- 4, the purchaser may, without prejudice to any recourse for compensation for any possible damages suffered, and after having been informed by the vendor by any means that enables proof of delivery to be obtained:

- either terminate his/her contract and obtain without penalty the immediate reimbursement of amounts paid;
- or accept the modification or the substitute trip proposed by the vendor; a rider to the contract detailing the appropriate modifications is then signed by the parties; any reduction in price is deducted from the amount that may still be due by the purchaser, and, if the payment already made exceeds the price of the modified service, the excess shall be restored to the purchaser before departure.

Article R.211-10

In the case provided for in Article L. 211-14, when, before the purchaser's departure, the vendor cancels the trip or holiday, the latter should inform the purchaser by any means that enables proof of delivery to be obtained; the purchaser, without prejudice to any recourse for compensation for any possible damages suffered, obtains immediate reimbursement, without penalty, of sums paid from the vendor; in this case, the purchaser receives an allowance that is at least equal to the penalty they he would have had to pay if the cancellation had been made by him/her on that date. Provisions of this article do not, in any case whatsoever, obstruct the conclusion of any amicable agreement for a substitution trip or holiday proposed by the vendor and accepted by the purchaser.

Article R.211-11

When, after the departure of the purchaser, the vendor is unable to supply a predominant part of the services provided for in the contract that represent a sizeable percentage of the price paid by the purchaser, the vendor must immediately make the following arrangements without prejudice to any recourse for compensation for any possible damages suffered:

- either offer services to replace the anticipated services by possibly bearing any price supplement and, if the services accepted by the purchaser are of an inferior quality, the vendor should reimburse the difference in price to the purchaser, upon his/her return;

- or, if no replacement services are proposed or if these are refused by the purchaser for valid reasons, to supply the purchaser at no extra cost, transport tickets in order to ensure his/her return, in conditions that may be deemed to be equivalent, to the point of departure or to another place accepted by both parties.

The provisions of this article are applicable should the obligation set out in paragraph 13 of Article R. 211-4 not be met
