Conoce Marruecos may request additional information to that initially provided by the customer, in order to provide a better service and ensure the reliability of the data provided by the buyer.

The trip to Morocco from the country of origin and the return corresponds to the client, either by sea, land or air, so he must manage these transfers on his own.

The client must Conoce Marruecos, or that have a higher cost for them. Otherwise, Conoce Marruecos is not responsible for the difficulties or inconveniences that may arise from the relevant information omitted by the client, or the consequences that result from it.

Conoce Marruecos, once the availability has been checked and the conditions and price of the requested services have been finalized, by means of the corresponding budget, you will issue a reservation confirmation email with the necessary contractual documentation in a durable format (PDF file). Upon confirmation of the customer and after payment of the payment and agreed signal Conoce Marruecos will begin the efforts to procure the contracted service (s).

3. AVAILABILITY

3.1 Accommodation in Riads

The tourist category of the hotels or riads is assigned by the official organizations of Morocco according to the quality and performance of the establishment, it is therefore warned, the client of Conoce Marruecos that such classification does not have to be coincident with the one that follows at European level.

The accommodation will be considered under the contract provided that the reserved room is available, at least, for the overnight stay of the clients on the date or dates contracted. The available entrance and dining hours, where appropriate, will be agreed and indicated to the client at the time of confirmation of the availability of the rooms, so that he can choose the one that is most convenient for him.

In case of delays on the scheduled time of entry to the riad, the client must notify it as soon as possible to Conoce Marruecos or, directly, to the hotel establishment to avoid inconveniences with the reservation or at the organizational level.

The reservation of beds will be conveniently advised by the client, in case of carrying minors or needing to have cribs, before the budget is made. The client is also advised that the rooms are usually single or double, although their use can be admitted for a maximum of up to four people, provided that this is reported in the budget that is sent to the client along with the rest of the pre-contractual information.

In the riad, animals are not usually admitted, so if the client plans to travel with animals, they must notify Conoce Marruecos so that they can offer the overnight stay in those establishments that do, prior to the preparation of the itinerary of activities or services that You want to hire.

3.2 Leisure activities, visits and circuits

Conoce Marruecos organizes a wide variety of activities and circuits; visits to centers of cultural interest, group excursions (with or without a guide), outdoor scape room and events of different themes, which are publicized through the Website and social networks. The activities can be combined with accommodation or contracted independently. To ensure during these the best assistance for any unforeseen event, Conoce Marruecos recommends the subscription of travel insurance (even with the transport company with which they travel to destination) that guarantees coverage in case of cancellation, accident, assistance medical or death, as well as the transfer to the point of return, to make the return trip in the means of transport that the client had planned. Travel and cancellation insurance is an optional extension for the client, being exempt Conoce Marruecos S.A.R.L. of any type of responsibility before any inconvenience that according to the law is not enforceable.

4. Prices and Payment

The prices provided in the content of the Website are indicative, and may vary depending on the availability of accommodation and leisure or tourist activities requested. The client will be specified prior to the reservation confirmation so that he can assess them and indicate to Morocco if he wishes to accept the budget submitted.

The client, after receiving confirmation of the reservation, has a period of 48 business hours to enter the account number of Conoce Marruecos 75% of the total amount of the contracted services. If after this deadline is not made the entry will be understood that the consumer gives up the offer and will proceed to its cancellation.

The rest of the outstanding amount will be paid in the same way as the first payment of the reservation, the consumer being able to choose between entering the remaining 25% 15 days before the provision of services or paying it upon arrival at destination.

In the riad, customers can request a credit card number as a precaution, the amount withheld will be released if there are no expenses that exceed the price paid for the confirmed reservation.

The supplementary services demanded by the client, in case of not being able to be provided, will be reimbursed to the client, prior confirmation of Conoce Marruecos with the riad or establishment that performs the service or organizes the excursion or event.

5. Passports and Visas

Before traveling to Morocco it is essential that the client and the end users of the service verify that they have the necessary documentation in order to travel and carry out the contracted stay, also in case minors and babies travel. The client is committed to its management, although it Conoce Marruecos, to facilitate it, it has information and recommendations on the Website, for purely indicative purposes, where our clients can consult the organizations to which they can go to carry out the necessary procedures.

6. Communication

By using this Website, the user accepts that the communications are electronic (email, whatsapp or notices published on the Website). For contractual purposes, the client undertakes to use the aforementioned means of communication and agrees that all contracts, notifications, information and other communications be made through electronic channels.

6.1 Data communication and errors

The client is responsible for the veracity and accuracy of the personal and logistic data provided to our reservation management service, both their own and third parties, who have their authorization to facilitate them, who have read and accepted these General Conditions and, in Your case, individuals. Conoce Marruecos will not be responsible for the consequences arising from the customer's failure to provide certain, sufficient and accurate data.

If the client provides erroneous information and warns him, before or after the reservation confirmation, he must communicate it via email to Conoce Marruecos as quickly as possible, in order to update the data and not harm the provision of the service. The client will have a maximum period to communicate to Morocco this type of incident up to one week before the service is provided.

6.2 Cancellations

- a. At all times, the consumer and user may cancel the requested or contracted services, having the right to the refund of the amounts that they had paid, but they must indemnify Conoce Marruecos in the amounts indicated below, unless such resolution, in the case of combined trips, take place due to force majeure:
- b. It will pay the management costs, the cancellation fees, if any, and a penalty consisting of 5 percent of the total amount of the trip, if the cancellation occurs more than ten and less than fifteen days before the start date of the trip; 15 percent between days three and ten, and 25 percent within forty-eight hours prior to departure.
 - Because the policy of cancellations in the riad usually requires prior notice one month in advance, Conoce Marruecos can only pay the amount of these reservations when its cancellation is notified with the same deadline that the riad contemplates.
 - Failure to appear at the place of service provision on the date and time indicated, the consumer and user is obliged to pay the total amount of the service, paying, where appropriate, the outstanding amounts. There will be a lack of presentation at the exit if the consumer does not communicate his will not to carry out the trip and does not appear at the time and place provided for the departure.
- c. In the event that the combined trip or activity is subject to special economic conditions of contract, such as special rates, cancellation fees will be established in accordance with the conditions stipulated in the particular conditions.

In cases where Conoce Marruecos, condition the viability of the service or activity to a minimum number of participants and that number is not reached, you will notify the client in writing with a minimum of 10 calendar days on the date of service provision and proceed to the cancellation of the trip, reimbursing all the anticipated amounts.

6.3 Delays

If the client or the end users of the contracted service warn that due to inconvenience of displacement or any other cause they will arrive late on the scheduled time, both to the riad and to the Conoce Marruecos so that the incidence can be managed and this does not frustrate the overnight reservation or the enjoyment of the circuit.

6.4 Modifications

All written or audiovisual information provided on the Website is purely informative and can be modified without prior notice in what Conoce Marruecos necessary. The activities and other services offered will be specified in accordance with their availability, which will be confirmed to the client through the contracting process through email.

In the event that, before leaving the trip, Conoce Marruecos is forced to significantly modify any essential element of the contract must immediately inform the consumer and user, this being able to terminate the contract without penalty or accept a modification of the contract that specifies the variations introduced and its impact on the price.

The consumer and user must communicate the decision adopted by Conoce Marruecos or, where appropriate, within three days of being notified of the proposed modification.

In the event that the consumer and user do not notify their decision in the indicated terms, it will be understood that they opt for the termination of the contract without penalty.

6.5 Reserve transfer

The principal contractor or the beneficiary may freely assign their reservation on the combined trip to a person who meets all the conditions required for it.

The assignment must be communicated in writing to Conoce Marruecos at least 15 calendar days before the date of the provision of the reserved services or activities, unless a shorter period is established in the particular conditions of the contract.

The person who transfers his reservation on the combined trip and the assignee will respond jointly and severally, before Conoce Marruecos or, where appropriate, the organizer that is part of the contract, the payment of the balance of the price, as well as the justified additional expenses that may have caused such assignment.

6.6 Complaints and claims

To send a suggestion of improvement, complaint or claim, you must send a letter by email to our Customer Service Center which, in the last two cases, will open a file and begin the appropriate steps through the email gerencia@conoce-marruecos.com, responding to the client through the same channel in a maximum period of 72 hours.

In case of any breach of the establishment where the accommodation takes place or, of the contracted activities, the client will go to the organization of the same to file the corresponding complaint and will communicate the incident to Conoce Marruecos together with the documentation that has been delivered in the place. Conoce Marruecos will get in touch with the establishment or organizer to support the client and help you with the necessary steps.
