June 18 | Lisboa

Full day private driver in the city.

Lisboa, with its exceptional natural light, which has long inspired writers, photographers and filmmakers, the brightly coloured buildings straddling the slopes, the striking ochre of the roofs, the tiling on so many facades and the narrow twisting alleys of the medieval districts bestow Lisbon with the peculiar atmosphere of a city perched somewhere between the European north and the Mediterranean south.

 Includes a full day private driver in the city

 Overnight in Lisboa

June 19 | Sintra

Full day private driver to visit Sintra.

Sintra, the Mountain of the Moon, is a place full of magic and mystery. It's difficult to see all of Sintra has to offer in one single day, so our suggestion goes to one of the most romantic palaces in Portugal, the Pena Palace, a fancy, revivalist reconstruction built in the Romantic period. On the way back to Lisboa, stop in westernmost point of mainland Europe, Cabo da Roca. Continue your journey towards, Cascais and Estoril, one of the most cosmopolitan and touristic places in Portugal. It's worth going on a stroll around town, feeling the atmosphere.
