Detailed Program

Day 1- (10 Dec 19) Arrival Yangon and sightseeing

ETA: 08.00

Upon arrival at Yangon International Airport, you will be welcome by our travel representative and then visit the bustling downtown streets where we can find the remaining British heritage in the city, and its colonial architecture. The boulevard of Pansodan Street, for instance, is famous for its crumbling colonial-era buildings and bookstalls.

Continue to Secretariat Office by walking and passing through Bogalayzay Road, which was the home and administrative seat of British Burma.

Finally, we will visit to the Shwedagon Pagoda, the most important religious structure in Myanmar and a point of pilgrimage for Buddhists across the globe before exploring the bustling Chinatown area in the downtown of Yangon, which is known for its long rows of barbecue stalls, fruit vendors and many restaurants.

Day 2- (11 Dec 19) Excursion around Yangon

After having breakfast at the hotel, we will visit to the Botataung Pagoda, which is hollow and through which you can walk and see many ancient relics and artifacts.

From there, we will continue to Yangon downtown area where we can find many large colonial buildings that are still in use. It is also interesting to see the sidewalk markets including those selling old books and magazines dated from the 1960's up to the present.

Then, we will have the chance to watch and buy some of the best Myanmar crafts at the Bogyoke Aung San Market, a major bazaar built in 1926 with inner cobblestone streets. It is a major tourist destination, dominated by antiques, Burmese handicraft and jewelry shops; along with art galleries, and clothing stores.

Continue to the Reclining Buddha at Chauk Htet Gyi, still a popular place for Buddhist worshippers before we make our way to the beautiful Kandawgyi Lake for a number of scenic photo opportunities on what is known in Myanmar as the 'Royal Lake'

(Remark: Bogyoke Aung San Market is closed every Monday and on Public Holidays.)

Day 4- (13 Dec 19) Visit Jade Market, Inwa and Amarapura

In the morning, we will visit to Jade market, one of the most incredible sites to visit for a jeweler, which is a super busy place with lots of buyers and sellers wander around.

Then we will explore to the ancient capitals close to Mandalay. Our first will be to the former royal capital, Inwa, which was founded in 1364 and was the royal capital for nearly 400 years. Highlights here include the 'leaning tower of Ava', Maha Aungmye Bonzan Monastery, which was built by masonry as opposed to most other monasteries which are built with wood, and the elegant teakwood Bagaya Monastery.

In the evening, we will continue to Amarapura, an old ancient capital where nowadays you can find the famous U Bein Bridge. It is a crossing that spans the Taungthaman Lake near Amarapura in Myanmar. The 1.2-kilometre (0.75 mi) bridge was built around 1850 and is believed to be the oldest and (once) longest teakwood bridge in the world. It is the place where you can enjoy the most beautiful sunset.
