Get ready for an early start and journey out to the Mother of all temples, Angkor Wat. Believed to be the world's largest religious building, this is most famous temple at Angkor. Enjoy a well-deserved picnic breakfast at Angkor as you watch the sun rise over the temples before heading into the Mother of all temples, Angkor Wat. Believed to be the world's largest religious building, this temple is the perfect fusion of symbolism and symmetry and a source of pride and strength to all Khmers.

We continue to explore Ta Prohm "Tomb Raider" fame. Ta Prohm has been abandoned to the elements, a reminder that while empires rise and fall, the riotous power of nature marches on, oblivious to the dramas of human history.

We will go to local pagoda, where you should change to clothes we can get wet in as here we will experience the ceremony "Srouch Teok", which roughly translates into "Water blessing". A monk will chant in ancient Pali as he splashes water over us, washing away our sins and bad luck so we can start fresh and by being a good person can increase our good luck.

In the afternoon, we go beyond the temple area to explore the real countryside for sunset in quad bike. A fun way to admire in the places, the sounds and the smells of the countryside, watching the villages, the rice fields, the wet area.
