- Paris needs no introduction. It's synonymous with food, culture, fashion, and architecture, rarely disappointing those who visit. Despite being the dream destination for millions of people each year, the French capital still has plenty hidden secrets to offer. Paris' monument-lined boulevards, museums, classical bistros and boutiques are now enhanced by a new wave of multimedia galleries, creative wine bars, design shops and tech start-ups.
- Iconic Architecture : The cloud-piercing, wrought-iron Eiffel Tower, broad Arc de Triomphe guarding the glamorous avenue des Champs-Élysées, gargoyled Notre Dame cathedral, lamplit bridges spanning the Seine and art nouveau cafes' wicker-chair-lined terraces are enduring Parisian emblems. Despite initial appearances, however, Paris' cityscape isn't static: there are some stunning modern and contemporary icons, too, from the inside-out, industrial-style Centre Pompidou to the mur végétal (vertical garden) gracing the Musée du Quai Branly, the glass sails of the Fondation Louis Vuitton contemporary-art centre, and the gleaming steel egg-shaped concert venue La Seine Musicale.
- Glorious Food : France's reputation for its cuisine (the French word for 'cooking') precedes it, and whether you seek a cosy neighbourhood bistro or a triple-Michelin-starred temple to gastronomy, you'll find that every establishment prides itself on exquisite preparation and presentation of quality produce, invariably served with wine. Enticing patisseries, boulangeries (bakeries), fromageries (cheese shops) and crowded, colourful street markets are perfect for putting together a picnic to take to the city's beautiful parks and gardens. A host of culinary courses – held anywhere from home kitchens to the world's most prestigious cookery schools – offers instruction for all schedules, abilities and budgets.
- Stylish Shopping : Parisians are synonymous with style, and fashion shopping is the city's forte. Paris remains at the forefront of international trends, and browsing emerging and established designer boutiques and flagship haute couture houses is a quintessential part of any visit. You'll also find hip concept and homewares shops, and resplendent art nouveau department stores, along with a trove of vintage shops and flea markets, atmospheric bookshops and dark-green bouquiniste stalls stocking secondhand titles lining the riverbanks, adorable children's wear and toy shops, art and antique dealers, venerable establishments selling professional cookware, and, of course, gourmet-food and wine shops galore.
- Artistic Treasures : With an illustrious artistic pedigree – Renoir, Rodin, Picasso, Monet, Manet, Dalí and Van Gogh are but a few of the masters who have lived and worked here over the years – Paris is one of the great art repositories of the world, harbouring treasures from antiquity onward. In addition to big hitters like the incomparable Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay's exceptional impressionist collection, and the Centre Pompidou's cache of modern and contemporary art, scores of smaller museums showcase every imaginable genre, a diverse range of venues mount major exhibitions through to offbeat installations, and there's also the city's vibrant street art.

Eiffel Tower Summit Ticket (no guide)

Gives you access to the lifts to the 2 first floors + summit. It's a timed entry ticket, but be aware that you can spend some time in line because of security checkings and great number of tourists. No one could imagine Paris today without it. But Gustave Eiffel only constructed this elegant, 320m-tall signature spire as a temporary exhibit for the 1889 World's Fair. Luckily, the art nouveau tower's popularity assured its survival. Prebook online to avoid painfully long ticket queues. Lifts ascend to the tower's three floors; change lifts on the 2nd floor for the final ascent to the top. Energetic visitors can climb as far as the 2nd floor via the south pillar's 704 stairs (no prebooking).

A heady mix of haunting ruins, awe-inspiring art and vibrant street life, Italy's hot-blooded capital is one of the world's most romantic and charismatic cities.

Monumental History

The result of 3000 years of ad hoc urban development, Rome's cityscape is an exhilarating sight. Ancient icons such as the Colosseum, Roman Forum and Pantheon recall the city's golden age as caput mundi (capital of the world), while monumental basilicas tell of its history as seat of the Catholic Church. Lording it over the skyline, St Peter's Basilica towers over the Vatican, testifying to the ambition of Rome's Renaissance popes and the genius of its game-changing architects. Elsewhere, ornate piazzas and showy fountains add a baroque flourish to the city's captivating streets.

Artistic Treasures

Few cities can rival Rome's astonishing artistic heritage. Throughout history, the city has starred in the great upheavals of Western art, drawing top artists and inspiring them to push the boundaries of creative achievement. The result is a city awash with priceless treasures. Ancient statues adorn world-class museums; Byzantine mosaics and Renaissance frescoes dazzle in art-rich churches; baroque facades flank medieval piazzas. Stroll through the centre and without even trying you'll come across masterpieces by the titans of European art – sculptures by Michelangelo, paintings by Caravaggio, frescoes by Raphael and fountains by Bernini.

Living the Life

A trip to Rome is as much about lapping up the dolce vita lifestyle as gorging on art and culture. Idling around picturesque streets, whiling away hours at streetside cafes, people-watching on pretty piazzas – these are all central to the Roman experience. The tempo rises in the evening when fashionable drinkers descend on the city's bars and cafes for a sociable aperitivo (drink with snacks) and trattorias hum with activity. Elsewhere, cheerful hordes mill around popular haunts before heading off to hip cocktail bars and late-night clubs.

Roman Feasting

Eating out is one of Rome's great pleasures and the combination of romantic alfresco settings and superlative food is a guarantee of good times. For contemporary fine dining and five-star wine there are any number of refined restaurants, but for a truly Roman meal head to a boisterous pizzeria or convivial neighbourhood trattoria. That's where the locals go to indulge their passion for thin, crispy pizzas, humble pasta dishes, and cool white wines from the nearby Castelli Romani hills. To finish off, what can beat a gelato followed by a shot of world-beating coffee?

ROME - VATICAN - ROME

Arte Vaticana: Vatican Museums Tour with Skip-the-Line Tickets

Explore Sistine Chapel, St. Peter's Basilica, and Vatican Museums

- Skip-the-line Vatican tour led by an art historian or church historian
- Vatican Museums, St. Peter's Basilica, and Sistine Chapel

Tour Description

Explore the Vatican with this tour, including skip-the-line tickets to shorten the wait! You'll slip around the crowds as you visit the Vatican's masterpieces, including the Sistine Chapel and St. Peter's Basilica, in a four-hour tour led by an expert in art or church history. Comprehensive and engaging, the Arte Vaticana tour is designed to help you make sense of the Vatican's collection and understand its layered tapestry of art and history.

You'll begin your visit with the Vatican Palace (now housing the Vatican Museums), one of the world's great repositories of ancient and Renaissance art. There you'll generally start with a thorough overview of papal history and the construction of the Vatican Palace. Next you may veer off to the chronologically arranged picture gallery known as the Pinacoteca, which forms the perfect backdrop for a discussion of the history of painting from the late medieval to high Renaissance periods. From here, you'll traverse the halls of the museums as you head to the Sistine Chapel, where you'll discuss Michelangelo's work, his struggles with the medium (fresco) and his patron (the Pope), and the fantastic symbolism of the ceiling and altar. You'll spend the final forty to sixty minutes of this tour exploring St. Peter's Basilica, a vast church and the symbolic center of Catholicism, fixing the church and its artworks in a social and historical context—and tying it back to the themes that you have discussed earlier in the tour.

Roma Antica: Colosseum, Roman Forum, and Palatine Hill Tour with Skip-the-Line Tickets (Small group/

Delve into Rome's past incarnations

- Learn details of ancient Roman politics, society, and empire
- Led by an archaeologist or classical historian
- Colosseum, Palatine Hill, and Roman Forum

Tour Description

This four-hour tour takes you into the ancient Roman Forum and the archaeological core of the city, focusing on three key monuments: the Roman Forum, the Palatine Hill, and the Colosseum. Led by an archaeologist or classical historian, this is the most in-depth Colosseum tour and uses the ruins of the ancient city as a backdrop for discussing the rise of the Roman empire and the role of archaeology in history. The tour also features skip-the-line tickets so that you can enter the ruins quickly.

Depending on your guide's approach, you might start at either the Palatine Hill or the Colosseum. On Palatine Hill, you will explore the first stages of the city and the legend of its founding in 753 B.C. by Romulus. You may also stop in the Palatine Museum to learn about Roman sculpture, or visit other ruins, including remnants of the aqueduct of Claudius. Following this, you'll head down the Via Sacra (the main street of ancient Rome) and past the major sites that crowded the city center, including the Curia (senate house) and the temples, triumphal arches, and basilicas around the Forum Square. You'll either end or start your tour at the Colosseum, where you will discuss Roman public spectacle and decadence. Also known as the Flavian Amphitheater, the Colosseum is a marvel of ancient engineering and construction. You'll explore the role the Colosseum played in the social life of ancient Rome and discuss how this monolith was built. At the end of your Roma Antica tour, you will have a deeper knowledge of ancient Rome—its emperors, its history, and its feats of engineering.

Cradle of the Renaissance, romantic, enchanting and utterly irresistible, Florence (Firenze) is a place to feast on world-class art and gourmet Tuscan cuisine. Few cities are so compact size or so packed with extraordinary art and architecture masterpieces at every turn. The urban fabric of this small city, on the banks of the Arno river in northeastern Tuscany, has hardly changed since the Renaissance and its narrow cobbled streets are a cinematic feast of elegant 15th- and 16th-century palazzi (palaces), medieval candle-lit chapels, fresco-decorated churches, marble basilicas and world-class art museums brimming with paintings and sculptures by Botticelli, Michelangelo et al. Unsurprisingly, the entire city centre is a Unesco World Heritage site.

Italy's fashion industry was born and bred here. Homegrown designers Guccio Gucci and Salvatore Ferragamo opened haute-couture boutiques in Florence in the 1920s and shopping in the Tuscan capital has been stylish ever since. A-listers fashion houses lace Via de' Tornabuoni and a Pandora's box of specialist boutiques selling all manner of beautiful objects parade alongside family-run botteghe (workshops) in a glorious tangle of medieval backstreets. Watch fourth-generation Florentine goldsmiths and shoemakers at work, buy artisan scents evocative of the Florentine countryside and Tuscan sea breeze, and know the tag 'Fiorentina' is one of the finest international labels going.

Quality produce sourced locally, seasonally and sustainably is the Holy Trinity and Florentines share an enormous pride in their culinary tradition. Their city, surrounded by wine-rich hills, is a gourmet paradise where eating and drinking exceedingly well is mandatory. Be it a traditional bowl of earthy ribollita (bean, bread and veg soup), a tripe panino at a family-run food truck or a blue T-bone steak served in a market trattoria unchanged since 1915, dining in Florence is timeless and memorable. Raw cuisine, fish bistros, craft cocktails and the dazzling creativity of modern young Tuscan chefs add contemporary edge.

Stand on a bridge over the Arno several times in a day and the light and mood changes every time. At sunset hike to Piazzale Michelangelo to be dazzled by a palette embracing every known shade of soft pink, orange, fiery amber. Surprisingly small as it is, Florence looms large on the world's 'must-sees' list – and not just for its unmatched treasure chest of art. Rich in culture, backdropped by history and anchored by family, faith and food, Florentine lifestyle is enviably sweet. Enjoy a go-slow afternoon passeggiata, indulge in an aperitivo at dusk, savour la dolce vita...

Imagine the audacity of building a city of marble palaces on a lagoon – and that was only the start. Never was a thoroughfare so aptly named as the Grand Canal, reflecting the glories of Venetian architecture lining its banks. At the end of Venice's signature waterway, the Palazzo Ducale and Basilica di San Marco add double exclamation points. But wait until you see what's hiding in the narrow backstreets: neighbourhood churches lined with Veroneses and priceless marbles, Tiepolo's glimpses of heaven on homeless-shelter ceilings, and a single Titian painting that mysteriously lights up an entire basilica.

VENICE

Make your own way to the meeting point for your tour.

Gondola Ride (small group / 30 minute)

You can't leave Venice without taking a gondola ride!

Venice can be chaotic and overcrowded. Unlock the secrets of visit to Venice is not complete unless you take a gondola ride down the world-famous Grand Canal.

A classic gondola ride is the perfect way to appreciate the beauty, charm and color of this unique city built on water. Step into your craft and be transported back in time as your gondolier propels you along. Feel part of an ancient Venetian tradition and experience Venice as the locals have for more than a thousand years.

Unwind and relax into the gentle rhythms and movements of the canals, appreciating the skill involved in steering the gondola through the intricate waterways. As you sit back and take in the views, you will inevitably become involved in the friendly banter of the gondoliers - as much a part of Venetian culture as the gondola itself!

While you are at the Canal Grande (Grand Canal) look up at the glorious palazzos above you. Built by wealthy merchants and powerful families these beautiful buildings are in a range of mellow colors and styles from Byzantine to Baroque.

You'll also explore many hidden canals that are so small, you can literally touch the palazzo, all the while being cradled in the atmosphere unique only to Venice.

Tall tankards and high-tech cars, edgy art and Lederhosen – Munich is a city where traditional and modern sit side by side like few places on earth.

Mine's a Mass

Beer has been part of Munich life for at least seven centuries and the brewing tradition is very much alive and kicking today. Nowhere else in Europe has a beer tradition quite like the Bavarian capital with six mammoth breweries pumping out world-class suds to hundreds of beer gardens and beer halls. And the climax to the Munich beer year is, of course, the famous Oktoberfest, attended by over six million people. Germany's 'purity law' guarantees there's nothing in your Mass (1L tankard) that shouldn't be, so if you can lift the thing – 'Prost!' (Cheers!)

Teutonic Treasure Trove

Munich has long been known as the 'city of art and beer', so before you head off to the pub, take some time to savour the local art scene. The Kunstareal, Munich's art quarter, is the place to start, with four major venues displaying everything from Dutch masters to 1960s design. The city also boasts some world-class museums focusing on topics as diverse as Oktoberfest, porcelain and BMW cars. And if that weren't enough, there are still royal palaces to explore – the legacy of 700 years of rule by a single family, the Wittelsbachs.

Well-Heeled Well-Being

The locals have a word for it – Gemütlichkeit – that untranslatable intermingling of cosiness, well-being and laid-back attitude. In Munich you will sense it most under the fairy lights of a summer beer garden, people-watching in the English Garden and behind the wheel of a BMW heading south. It may be just the local character, but a large share of Gemütlichkeit must come from the fact that the Bavarian capital is one of the most affluent cities on the planet, its economy larger than most small countries, its infrastructure well-tended.

Bizarre Bavaria

Munich's various quirks, the things that make the city the place it is, might be what stick in the memory most. Whether it be the inebriated oompah band, that special knife for eating monster radishes, the Bavarians outrageous dialect, the mad hat traditions of the Oktoberfest or the surfers on the Eisbach wave – you're sure to discover some freakish aspect of Munich life every day. And then there is the local garb – nowhere else in central Europe do the locals don their traditional costume – the famous Lederhosen and Dirndl – as readily as the Münchners, so why not join them?

The joke 'If it's baroque, don't fix it' is a perfect maxim for Salzburg: the story-book Altstadt (old town) burrowed below steep hills looks much as it did when Mozart lived here, 250 years ago. Standing beside the fast-flowing Salzach River, your gaze is raised inch by inch to graceful domes and spires, the formidable clifftop fortress and the mountains beyond. It's a backdrop that did the lordly prince-archbishops and Maria proud.

Beyond Salzburg's two biggest money-spinners – Mozart and The Sound of Music – hides a city with a burgeoning arts scene, wonderful food, manicured parks, quiet side streets where classical music wafts from open windows, and concert halls that uphold musical tradition 365 days a year. Everywhere you go, the scenery, the skyline, the music and the history send your spirits soaring higher than Julie Andrews' octave-leaping vocals.

How to book your trip

So how do you confirm your booking ?

Contact your travel designer by phone or email, and they will send you a booking form. Your travel designer will also send you an email with a secure payment link. This will allow you to safely pay the 30% deposit and the balance by credit card. If you choose to pay via American Express credit card we will be obliged to add 3% to the final amount. Please inform us if you choose to use American Express for your deposit or final payment.

The accommodation options and activities mentioned in the itinerary above are available at the creation of this quotation; the final accommodation and activity options depend on the availability at the moment of payment of the deposit. If an option is unavailable, we will reserve equivalent quality. The earlier that you reserve the tour, the more likelihood that all preferred choices mentioned above will be available.

Spelling of the travelers' full name must be identical to the one on your passport (we accept no responsibility in case of mistake).

After you accept this proposal, we will imperatively need:

Copies of the first page of the passport for all the travelers. Cellphone number that you will use while you are travelling (essential to communicate it to some of the service providers for your trip).

Cancellation Fees?

Objectif France must be informed as soon as possible by email confirming your cancellation. The date of this email is used to calculate any cancellation fees.

More than 30 days before the arrival date. The deposit will be retained, as this corresponds to the payments already made for certain services (non-reimbursable hotels for example).

Less than 30 days before the arrival date: 100 % of total will be retained.

In case of any changes in the number of visitors in your party, the tariff will be revised and adapted to the modified number of people. We advise you to purchase cancellation insurance with your insurance company.

Responsibility

Objectif France strives to satisfy its clients and does the utmost to ensure that each tour runs as smoothly as possible. Despite all the care that Objectif France takes to ensure a smooth and pleasant journey in France, we are not protected from unforeseen circumstances, be they to do with the weather or something else unplanned. If however you do encounter a problem during your trip (for example with your rental car company, your guide, your accommodation or any other related problem), we ask you to call us immediately on 00 33 9 66 96 13 19 or on 00 33 6 76 97 83 44. Do not hesitate to leave a message and we will contact you to try and resolve the problem. All problems should be solved whilst on the trip. Any reclamation made after returning from your tour is more difficult to resolve.

Insurance

Travel Insurance is compulsory on all our trips and is a condition of booking with us. When selecting a travel insurance policy we require that at a minimum you are covered for medical expenses, including emergency repatriation. We strongly recommend that the policy also covers personal liability, cancellation, curtailment and loss of luggage and personal effects.

We also recommend you take out cancellation insurance. This may cover cancellation penalties in certain circumstances if you have to cancel your trip unexpectedly due to illness, injury or unforeseen circumstances. Unfortunately cancellation insurance will not cover you if you change your mind !

Formalities

The first thing to do when preparing a trip is to make sure you have a passport. It must still be valid at least six months after the scheduled end date of your trip.

Also check that you have enough blank pages for the eventual visa (s).

If you do not have a passport yet, you must apply for one. If yours is not valid long enough or is already almost full, you must renew it. Depending on the country visited and your country of origin, either ...

- You will not need a visa and a simple stamp will be issued on your passport when you enter the country (airport, land, river or sea border checkpoints)
- You can get a visa upon arrival in the country (most of the time you will have to pay).
- You will need to obtain a visa before your departure (most of the time you will have to pay) either from the authorities of the country concerned (embassy or consulate) or directly online on a dedicated official website. Beware of fake commercial sites that charge for these visas at a far higher rate than the official sites!

If you have any doubt speak with your Travel Designer.

Separate invoicing of different elements of the same tourist package does not lead to the vendor being exempt from obligations arising from the statutory provisions of this section.

Article R.211-3-1

Exchange of pre-contractual information or the availability of contractual conditions is carried out in writing. This may take place by electronic means under conditions of validity and performance as provided for in Articles 1369-1 to 1369-11 of the Civil Code. Unless more favourably stipulated to the transferor, the latter should inform the vendor of his/her decision by any means that enables a proof of delivery to be obtained at least seven days before the start of the voyage. When the service sold is a cruise, this deadline is fifteen days. This transfer is not subject, in any case whatsoever, to prior authorization from the vendor.

Article R.211-8

Article R.211-9

When, before the purchaser's departure, the vendor is obliged to modify one of the elements that is essential to the contract, such as a significant price increase, and when the vendor disregards the obligation of providing information mentioned in paragraph 13 of Article R. 211- 4, the purchaser may, without prejudice to any recourse for compensation for any possible damages suffered, and after having been informed by the vendor by any means that enables proof of delivery to be obtained:

- or accept the modification or the substitute trip proposed by the vendor; a rider to the contract detailing the appropriate modifications is then signed by the parties; any reduction in price is deducted from the amount that may still be due by the purchaser, and, if the payment already made exceeds the price of the modified service, the excess shall be restored to the purchaser before departure.

Article R.211-10

In the case provided for in Article L. 211-14, when, before the purchaser's departure, the vendor cancels the trip or holiday, the latter should inform the purchaser by any means that enables proof of delivery to be obtained; the purchaser, without prejudice to any recourse for compensation for any possible damages suffered, obtains immediate reimbursement, without penalty, of sums paid from the vendor; in this case, the purchaser receives an allowance that is at least equal to the penalty they he would have had to pay if the cancellation had been made by him/her on that date. Provisions of this article do not, in any case whatsoever, obstruct the conclusion of any amicable agreement for a substitution trip or holiday proposed by the vendor and accepted by the purchaser.

Article R.211-11

When, after the departure of the purchaser, the vendor is unable to supply a predominant part of the services provided for in the contract that represent a sizeable percentage of the price paid by the purchaser, the vendor must immediately make the following arrangements without prejudice to any recourse for compensation for any possible damages suffered:

- either offer services to replace the anticipated services by possibly bearing any price supplement and, if the services accepted by the purchaser are of an inferior quality, the vendor should reimburse the difference in price to the purchaser, upon his/her return;

- or, if no replacement services are proposed or if these are refused by the purchaser for valid reasons, to supply the purchaser at no extra cost, transport tickets in order to ensure his/her return, in conditions that may be deemed to be equivalent, to the point of departure or to another place accepted by both parties.

The provisions of this article are applicable should the obligation set out in paragraph 13 of Article R. 211-4 not be met
