A collection of shops has filled the Loggia of the Merchants for nearly a millennium set beneath the two colonnaded galleries. A 14th-century revolt inspired the noble family to erect the massive fortress from brick to protect themselves from the city, and the walls and towers soar above the cobbled streets and protective moat. The dramatic exterior reminds you of a castle from a storybook as the sunlight washes through the grand windows in the aristocratic apartments to reveal the painted ceilings in the Golden Study.

Private transfer - Mercedes Class V

Transfer from Palermo to the hotel in Trapani with a stop in Segesta and Erice. Pick up at the hotel.

Segesta - The archaeological site - Private guided tour

Before reaching Trapani, you will stop in Segesta where you will see the beauties of the fifth century BC Doric Temples. The archaeological site of Segesta is one of the most valuable historic sites in Sicily. A center from ancient origins, the historical rival of Selinunte is located in the western part of the island, surrounded by a green and quiet countryside about 40 km from Trapani. The temple of Segesta, solemnly placed on a hill at the foot of Mount Barbaro, is certainly among the most exciting examples of Greek architecture. Completely isolated from the urban world, its white columns stand out among the green of the landscape. There is a beautifully preserved temple, harmonious in structure, and the most complete that has lasted to our days, as well as the theater, located in the scenic location on Mount Barbaro, approximately 400 meters high. Its construction dates back to the late fifth century BC, during the alliance with Athens. There are a total of 36 columns, not partly scalanated to avoid possible optical illusions (a technique also used in the Parthenon in Athens). The origins of Segesta are ancient enough to merge with the myth of Troy; Legend has it that the foundation of Segesta was the work of Aeneas.

What we do know, is that the center was of primary importance to the population of the Elimi, whose ancestry comes from the east and later merged with the local population.

Strongly influenced by Greek culture, it soon came into conflict with Selinus, marking in fact its own destiny: after the first clashes came in the sixth century BC, Segesta became the scale tipper for the fate of western Sicily.

Tempio di Segesta

Erice - Private guided tour

After the visit of Segesta you will reach Erice.

Erice is a corner of paradise at the top of a mountain where a magical panorama offers itself to the visitors. Both in winter and in summer, Erice gives away some special views of its land but through two versions, based on the weather of the season.

Erice is located in the west coast of Sicily, half an hour by car from Trapani, perched 751 m high on the mountain overlooking the sea. The history tells about many peoples who settled in Erice thanks to its altitude where it is easier to defend oneself but still close to the sea to exploit the maritime navigation. So that's the reason why Erice is full of ramparts and ancient walls useful to protect the town and nowadays they became important to feature the landscape. Tourists who visit Erice are enchanted by its atmosphere because, as already said at the top, this town is able to offer two different magical view: immersed in the fog during winter, illuminated by the sun during summer. The fog makes Erice something of never happen, like a ghost town detached from the rest of the world, while in summer, thanks to the sunlight, you will be able to appreciate better its beauties but without the medieval atmosphere of the winter. Anyway, Erice is always something of special, a unique town you have to find out during your holiday in Sicily!

June 2 - Day 27 Syracuse

Syracuse - Private Guided tour

This morning you will meet your personal guide at the hotel to enjoy a half day guided walking tour of Syracuse.

Syracuse is one of the great ancient capitals of Western civilization. More than any other city, Syracuse (Siracusa) encapsulates Sicily's timeless beauty. Ancient Greek ruins rise out of lush citrus orchards, cafe tables spill onto dazzling baroque piazzas, and honey-hued medieval side streets lead down to the sparkling blue sea. It's difficult to imagine now, but in its heyday this was the largest city in the ancient world, bigger even than Athens and Corinth. Its 'once upon a time' begins in 734 BC, when Corinthian colonists landed on the island of Ortygia (Ortigia) and founded the settlement, setting up the mainland city four years later. Almost three millennia later, the ruins of that then-new city constitute the Parco Archeologico della Neapolis, one of Sicily's greatest archaeological sites. Across the water from the mainland, Ortygia remains Syracuse's most beautiful corner, a deeply atmospheric quarter with an ever-growing legion of fans enamoured with its beautiful streetscapes and attractive dining, drinking and shopping options. The birthplace of Archimedes, Syracuse attracted one of the several Baroque Hill towns which are listed as UNESCO World Heritage sites and located at the foot of the Iblean Mountains.

June 7 - Day 32 Malta

Malta - Hypogeum of Hal Saflieni - Optional tour (Not included)

The Hal Saflieni Hypogeum is located in Paola, about 5 km away from Valletta, and is the only underground prehistoric temple in the world. It was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO and its construction dates back to 3600 BC.

More than 7,000 skeletons have been found here: the hypogeum was discovered by chance in 1902 after some work and is worth a visit because it goes down three levels underground. The first level is the oldest; the second conceals many rooms, including the Main Room, where the famous statuette of the Sleeping Woman and the Oracle Room were found: in this room there is a hole from which the voice of a man (but not a woman) manages to make itself heard throughout the hypogeum. All the rooms on the level, including the ceilings, are decorated and painted. The third level does not contain bones and therefore is thought to have served as a deposit of wheat.

Malta - optional tour (not included) - POPEYE VILLAGE

It is a theme park, also known by the name of Sweethaven Village, located in the bay of Anchor, in the northwest corner of the island, just 3 km from the village of Mellieha. In 1980 a film set was produced here for the production of the Hollywood film Popeye-Popeye (played by the late Robin Williams). Once the shooting was over, the village remained and it was transformed into a sort of open-air museum. It remains today and is a highly recommended destination for families with children or simply for lovers of entertainment parks. The park consists of 19 colorful wooden houses, naturally themed with the famous cartoon.

Inside you can make trips and attend shows, such as the puppet show. There is also space for museums (some houses keep interesting objects and articles from the filming) and to attractions of different kinds. For example, there are areas where children can climb or meet entertainers disguised as cult characters from the cartoon, namely Popeye, Olivia, Bluto and Poldo. Furthermore, in the center of Popeye Village there is the Lower Complex, a cinema hall (capacity of 40 seats) where you can see videos of about twenty minutes that tell the story of the park.

- FOOD TOUR

The cuisine of Malta is a treasure trove of Mediterranean influences and flavors and is affected by the proximity of Italy and Africa and of all the populations that have passed through here. It is difficult to choose a representative dish: with this tour you will test some of the most famous dishes.

Among the local delights you can find pastizzi, small savory puffs stuffed with ricotta or peas: they are eaten at all hours and the best ones are sold on the street, freshly cooked. Fish reigns supreme in the Maltese archipelago, always fresh: in Malta you can taste Aljota, a soup made with garlic and fresh fish. Among the earthen dishes the local rabbit served with tomato and potatoes gives life to fenkata, the most famous dish. Do not miss the zalgzett, pork sausages flavored with coriander, and the timpana, a tasty timbale of baked pasta with mixed meat enclosed in puff pastry. Malta is also famous for its cheeses and sweets: Malta's most renowned cheese is Gbejnet, made from sheep's milk. It is natural, fresh or seasoned or enriched with pepper and aromatic herbs. Among the most delicious desserts we find the Kanoli, very similar to the Sicilian cannoli with ricotta and chocolate chips, and the Qaghaq tal-ghasel, a dessert of Arab origin with black sugar, figs and cinnamon. The Maltese drink par excellence is Cisk beer, a local blonde beer; if you want to end the meal with a typical liqueur, ask for the prickly pear or carob one.

- TOUR OF PREHISTORIC TEMPLES

Go back in time and visit Malta's prehistoric temples dating back to 3150 BC. Tour the megalithic temples of Hagar Qim and Mnajdra with an expert guide and discover the works of art engraved in stone. Visit the ancient cave of Ghar Dalam.

One of the main attractions of Malta are the local markets. It's a great way to see local customs. In Malta there are several outdoor markets, where you can enjoy the typically Mediterranean flavors and aromas. In the villages between the island of Malta and Gozo, local markets take place a few times a week that offer artisan products, culinary, textile and much more.

- JEEP 4X4 EXPERIENCE IN GOZO ISLAND

Discover the places of interest and hidden corners of Gozo, aboard a jeep that can travel through small country roads, where larger vehicles cannot venture.
