MEETING

Today we will discover the marvelous Siena and San Gimignano with an English speaking guide and a private driver.

Siena was a very remarkable City-State in the Middle Ages, most of its important monuments were built between the XIII and the XIV century, today we can still admire these artistic and architectural wonders and much more.

The main square, Piazza del Campo, is the natural centre of the city. Its shell-shaped heart made of bricks is like a warm carpet of "burnt Siena" color. From here we continue walking to the top of the hill where the majestic Cathedral stands, unfolding its exceptional works of art, among which we find masterpieces of Michelangelo and Donatello.

Narrow alleys, hidden fountains, green valleys and gardens in the middle of the city, fossilized shells in the stones of the Cathedral floor, all of them have something to tell a curious visitor. Natural history, legends and secrets that can be revealed little by little and step by step, getting lost around Siena.

Lunch on your own.

During the afternoon we will continue the visit to San Gimignano.

Our guide will give us the opportunity of seeing this Middle Ages Tuscan gem city through its history, art and local flavours. We cross its main streets as well as the tiny, little alleyways normally hidden to crowds.

Our walking guided visit inside and outside the city walls will bring us to discover corners full of charm and breathtaking views of the magnificent countryside around San Gimignano. At the end return to the Hotel
