Location and Surrounding Area

Immersed in the peaceful Tuscan countryside, this magnificent four-bedroom farmhouse is ideally located to explore the region's cultural highlights and most spectacular natural wonders. With wonderful views of the surrounding hills, this exclusive masterfully-restored villa is the perfect location for unforgettable day trips to the most beautiful towns in Tuscany and provides a unique opportunity to admire its splendid landscapes while soaking up the region's incredibly rich historical and cultural heritage.

The villa is just a few kilometers from San Gimignano, one of the best preserved medieval towns in Italy. From afar, San Gimignano looks like a town from a Renaissance painting: a circle of 13th-century walls enclosing tall, teetering stone towers. Its towers make it instantly recognizable, but the art treasures held within its walls are just as remarkable. Although the town is small, there is enough art, architecture and fine food to keep you busy for more than one day.

The villa is less than one hour from Florence, a treasure trove of art with an astonishing contemporary vibe. Beyond the extraordinary artistic heritage, a testimony to its centuries of civilization, the best way to enjoy Florence is to stroll along the riverside avenues at sunset, or to get lost among the city's myriad alleyways of the bohemian Oltrarno or the narrow little streets of San Niccolò, where it feels like you have ended up in another time along its centuries-old walls.

The villa is a few kilometers from Volterra, one of Tuscany's most dramatic hilltop towns. Despite its many attractions, Volterra sees fewer tourists than other Tuscan towns, so you can expect to share its winding stone streets with locals and explore its ancient sites without crowds. Founded by the Etruscans and surrounded by medieval walls, Volterra has a notable historic center filled with fascinating Roman ruins, medieval buildings and alabaster workshops.

The villa is also a few kilometers from Siena. Its ancient red brick buildings, the scallop-shaped main square Piazza del Campo and the Cathedral Square, dominated by the zebra-striped Duomo, make it an absolute must for anyone traveling to Tuscany. Effectively an open-air museum celebrating the Gothic, Siena boasts secular monuments that have retained both their medieval forms and their exceptional art collections, providing plenty to marvel at.

Property 1605885708 is 31 km from Florence Amerigo Vespucci International Airport, 72 km from Pisa Galileo Galilei International Airport, 121 km from Bologna Guglielmo Marconi Airport and 326 km from Rome Leonardo da Vinci International Airport. San Gimignano is 25 km from the villa, Florence is 39 km, Volterra is 50 km, Siena is 56 km, Lucca is 75 km, Pisa is 76 km, Viareggio is 103 km, Forte dei Marmi is 115 km.
