TERMS AND CONDITION

DEPOSIT

In finalising itinerary details we will check the availability of hotels and where possible make provisional bookings. To do this we require early notification of flight details. Once the final itinerary and price are agreed and you wish to proceed we will ask for a minimum 20% non-refundable deposit of your tour price to cover our costs. Upon receipt of your deposit we will make a firm booking and confirm the details to you.

Where international flights are booked with us full payment of the airfare portion will be required at the time of the flight booking. Booking terms and conditions that apply to your flight will be those issued by the airline.

In several locations hotels are fully booked well in advance because few suitable alternatives exist. It is in your interests to pay the deposit as early as possible to secure best availability. At this stage if you choose to pay by bank transfer you may opt to pay the full price rather than a deposit, thereby avoiding a second bank transfer fee.

BALANCE DUE

Full payment of the balance is to be settled no later than 30 days before departure of your tour. A few service providers require early payment and if this applies we will notify you immediately. We reserve the right to cancel all bookings and the contract between us if payment in full does not reach us by the agreed date. Late payment may mean a lack of suitable accommodation, transport or other elements of the tour. Due to demand, especially in high season, we may not be able to secure preferred choices as well as being unable to set up suitable arrangements in time.

If you request any changes after you have paid in full, but before your date of departure, any increase in the price is to be settled by debit or credit card. If changes result in a reduction of the price, you will be reimbursed in local currency upon arrival less any costs that we have reasonably incurred.

Should you request changes we will advise you of the extra cost and only proceed on your instruction. Any extra costs you have incurred in altering your itinerary whilst in the tour destination must be settled no later than three days before the end of the tour. If the alteration involves a reduction we will refund the saving in local currency, less any costs reasonably incurred by us. No refund will be made for any unused elements of the tour itinerary.

CANCELLATION

Cancellations, effective upon receipt of written notification, are subject to the following penalties of the full trip price

20% non-refundable deposit due at the time of confirmation

60-30 days prior to arrival: 20% penalty

30-15 days prior to arrival: 50% penalty

14 days prior to arrival: 100% penalty

No show/no written notice: 100% of full fare

We reserve the right to cancel the contract between us for any reason prior to payment of the full price of the tour should we feel this necessary. You will receive a refund of any monies paid to us. If full payment has been made already we will cancel the contract only if circumstances beyond our control make this unavoidable. In that unlikely event we will contact you immediately and offer you the choice of an alternative of equivalent quality or a full refund of all monies paid. No additional compensation will be paid over and above the total sum received from you.

PAYMENT

We accept the payment via two ways:

1/ Bank transfer (Please note that our prices are not inclusive of transfer fees levied by your bank – please ask your bank to transfer the sum without prior deduction)

2/ Credit card via One Pay: One Pay is a leading online payments and financial transaction processing company in Vietnam. Major cards as Visa, Master Card and JCB Card are accepted (3% of the amount will be charged for administrative fee) and 3.5% administrative fees for AMEX card.

FORCE MAJEURE

At any time Ancient Orient Journeys may cancel, suspend, alter or withdraw a booking in the event or 'Force Majeure'

Ancient Orient Journeys cannot accept responsibility or pay any compensation for any loss, delay, cancellation or alteration of travel arrangements caused by circumstances that amount to 'Force Majeure'. This may include war or threat of war, outbreak or threat of disease, denial of border entry for any undocumented reasons, industrial disputes, fire, extreme and adverse weather conditions, natural disaster, riots/civil strife, terrorist activity, decisions relating to foreign nationals made by the elected or de facto leaders of such areas; and such other circumstances beyond Ancient Orient Journeys' reasonable control. In such circumstances Ancient Orient Journeys will do all possible to provide alternative necessary travel arrangements to ensure the safe passage for our clients. Any costs incurred are in addition to the original cost of the existing holiday and it may be required for them to be paid in advance.

Should major currency fluctuations occur between booking and final payment, increasing our cost base, we reserve the right to apply a surcharge.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

Travel insurance appropriate to the destination, type of tour and your own health are essential. If you are intending to engage in any activity considered 'hazardous' in any way, check your insurance carefully to ensure you will be covered in the case of an accident or incident. We request you provide the name of your travel and medical insurance company with contact details so we can notify others your behalf if you are unable to do so. This is extremely important and forms part of our quality assurance system. We also highly recommend you buy the COVID Travel Insurance which is nowadays a compulsory procedure to enter to Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos.
