16th of October | Monday

Arrival at the Lisboa Airport and pick up by private transfer.

Check in at the hotel of accommodation and relax after a long flight.

Free time to start to discover the beautiful city of Lisboa.

17th of October | Tuesday

Breakfast buffet at the accommodation and meeting at the hotel with the local guide.

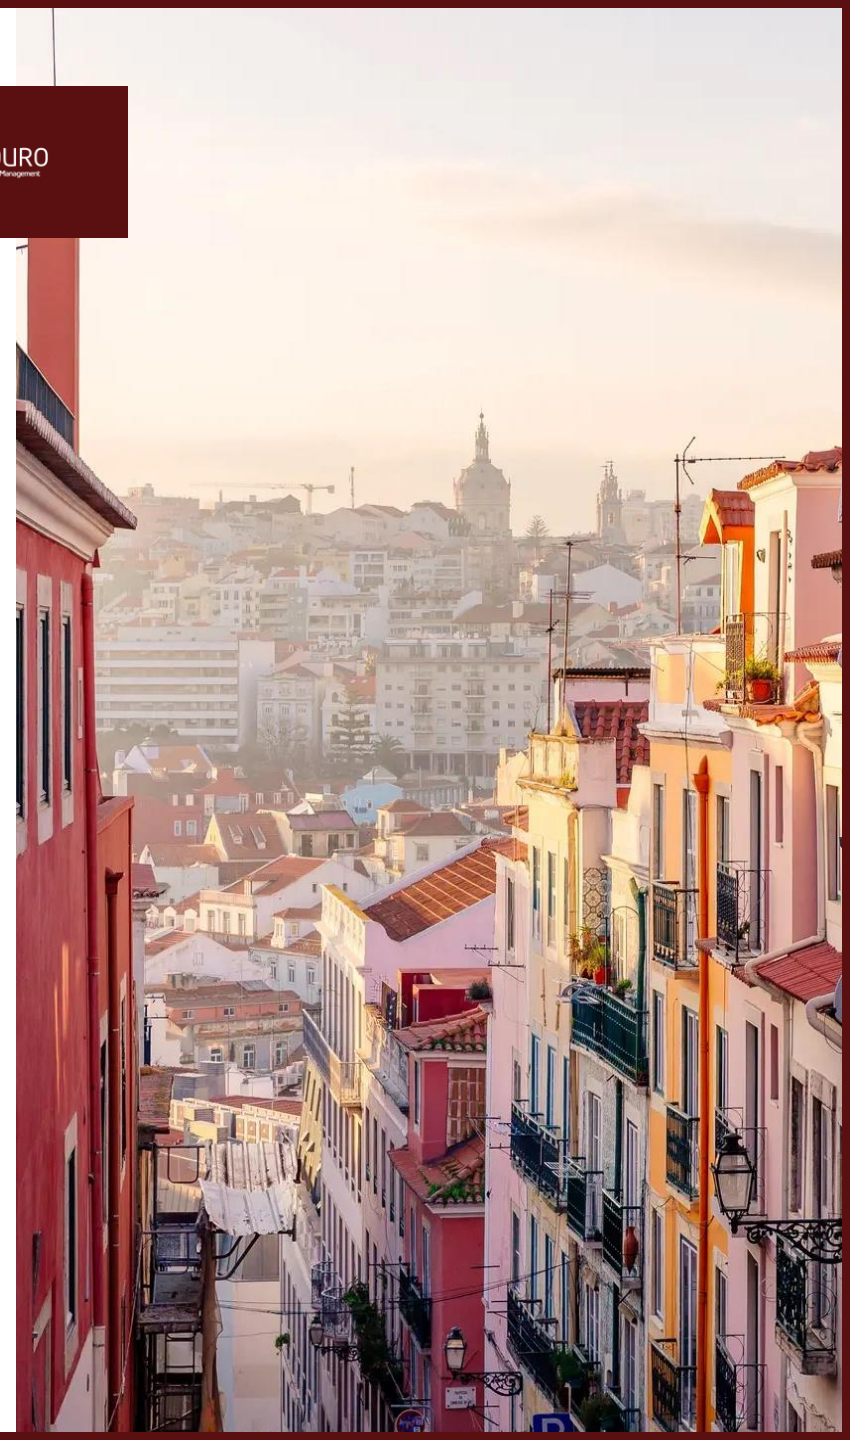

The guide will take you to all the best places, amazing views, a lot of history and amazing architecture. This will be a great introduction to the city. That way, will you feel more comfortable exploring on your own.

Lisboa stands in its 7 hills above the Tejo river, bordered by one only light. The capital of Portugal since its conquest to the Moors in 1147, Lisboa is a legendary city with over 20 centuries of history and the most important tourist pole of the country. From the pombalino buildings with tile facades in Baixa, narrow medieval streets of the typical neighborhoods of Alfama and Bairro Alto, where at night you can hear the Fado, to the numerous museums and shops, Lisboa is a city with several options.

The guide will teach you and show you the enchantments of this city during the tour, she is a great storyteller!

After the tour, you'll have time to explore.

We recommend visiting some viewpoints of the city of Lisboa: Senhora do Monte, Sophia de Mello Breyner, Sao Pedro de Alcantara and Santa Justa, where you will have wonderful views of various parts of Lisboa and ideal for some souvenir photos of the capital of Portugal.

18th of October | Wednesday

Breakfast buffet at the hotel of accommodation.

This day will be a free day to explore Lisboa on your own pace.

Since your hotel is very central, in a short walking distance, you will have plenty of historical and beautiful places to visit like Avenida da Liberdade, where all the main luxury brands are located, Rossio Square, Praça do Comércio and Cais do Sodré.

If you feel like having a genuine gastronomical Portuguese experience, we would recommend trying:

- A small place where you eat bifanas which is pork meat cooked in a delicious sauce served on bread and paired with a very cold beer
- A popular spot where you can have the very famous Pastel de Nata
- A restaurant for a delicious and very traditional Portuguese meal with Fado Show

We suggest you to visit the LX Factory.

It is an 1846 factory complex that was reborn in 2008 and opposed to the presence of shops, cafes and restaurants.

This space offers many stores such as bookstores, multi-kitchen catering establishments, urban art, among others... It is the perfect place to find souvenirs and local products.

You can enjoy a meal in this place.

19th to 20th of October | Thursday and Friday

Breakfast buffet at the accommodation.

We recommend you to visit Belém, the western part of Lisbon.

Nowadays, Belém is a cultural and monumental center, with a set of heritage of high historical and artistic interest.

In Belém we find the emblematic Mosteiro dos Jerónimos, a monument made after Vasco da Gama returned from his trip to India. At the time of the Portuguese Discoveries, the great challenge was to discover the sea route to India, which was discovered by Vasco da Gama and his navigators.

The monastery features Manueline architecture and decorative elements that are allusive to the art of navigation and also sculptures of exotic plants and animals that symbolize India. Its name derives from having been given to the Order of St. Jerome that was established in the monastery until 1834.

Closer to the Tejo river, you find the Padrão dos Descobrimentos, a monument that evokes Portuguese overseas expansion and symbolizes the bravery of Infante D. Henrique, the impeller of the Discoveries. The monument is characterized by a caravel that goes out to sea with Infante D. Henriques in front, along with his fellow travelers, and a mast with Portuguese shield faces.

Don't forget Torre de Belém, one of the city's ex-libris. The tower was built in honor of S. Vicente, where was the Great Nau that crossed fire with the fortress of S. Sebastião.

We recommend a visit to Bairro Alto after dinner. It is the place where most of the nightlife happens. The narrow streets are full of people just enjoying a nice drink and dancing outside. It is a great experience!

On Friday, Breakfast at the hotel and check out.

21st to 26th October | Saturday to Thursday

Arrival at Malta international Airport and meeting with private transfer to the hotel of accommodation.

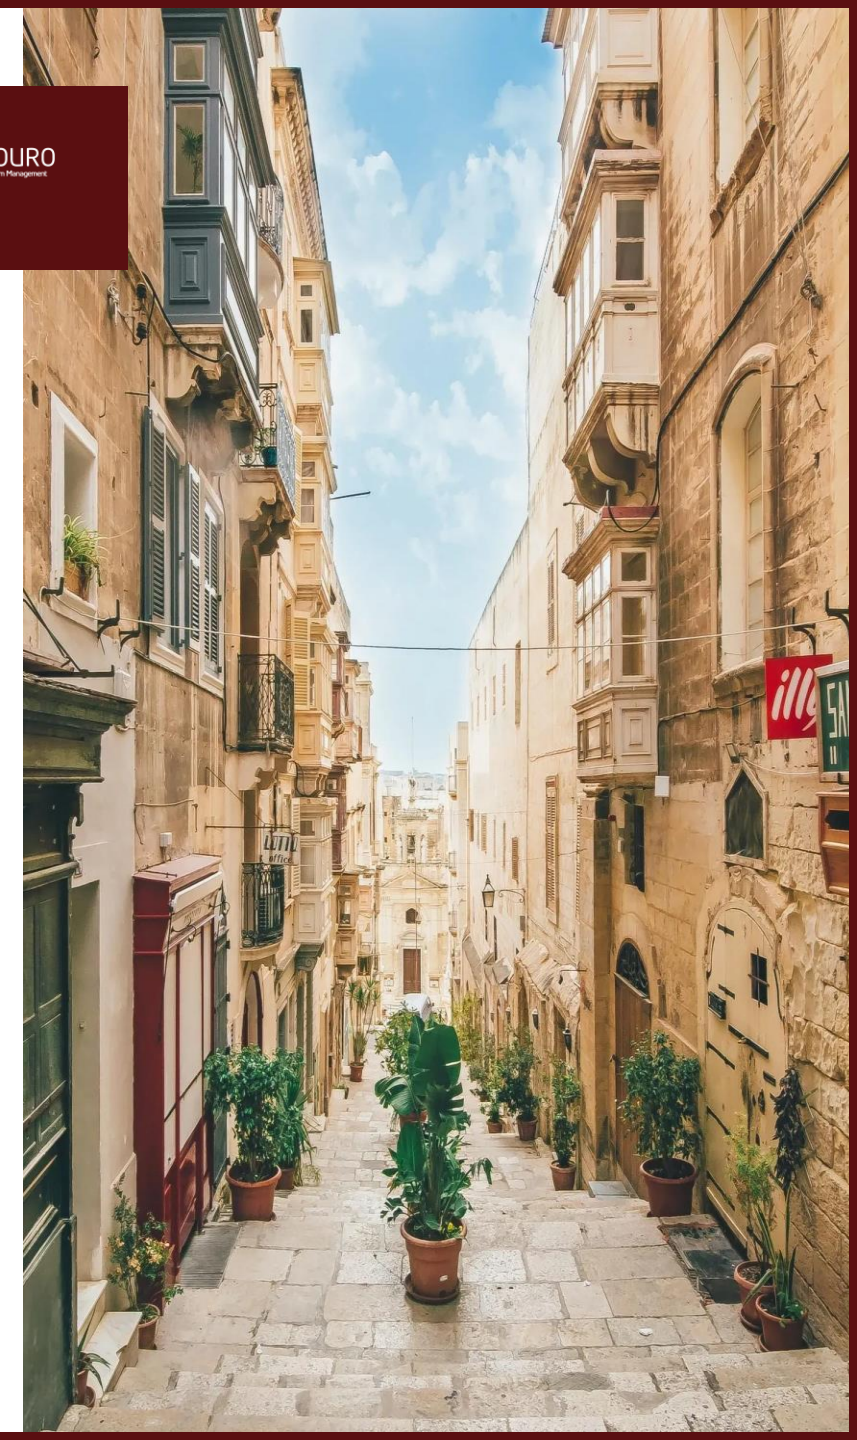

Check-in and time to relax and rest after the trip.

These next few days will be dedicated to discover the old city of La Valletta with all its nooks and corners full of history, architecture and magic. You will get lost in its streets in a good way!

The island has beautiful views, beaches and islands to explore. We recommend using private transportation because public transportation might not be the most reliable. Be aware that it takes a long time to go to one place to another since the roads are not that developed on most of the island.

The nightlife happens in Paceville, in a small town called St Julians. It is a place full of nightclubs and people just having a great time.

Don't forget that the hotel offers a variety of great services so enjoy them as much as you can for your relaxing time.

27th of October | Friday
