Stop en route on a 2-hour guided tour to visit Pompeii which is probably as close as we can get to travel in a time machine, to ancient Rome. In August, 79 AD, Vesuvius had been rumbling for some days and it is estimated that a large part of the population of 20,000 had been evacuated; those that were left were as if suspended in time, as the plaster casts made of the bodies that were found shows. Excavation started in the 18th century and continues to this day. The first impression, on entering the Forum, is just how massive Roman structures were; they really dwarf revered Medieval or later sites. You will get to walk Roman streets, look into bars, stroll into Patrician villas, complete with frescoes and mosaics, there is even a mosaic doormat, saying 'beware of the dog'.

Rejoin your driver and continue to your hotel in the evening you may wish to enjoy dinner at one of the local small restaurants you may wish to try a fresh seafood pasta, buonissimo!!

Small group tour of Sorrento and Capri

Spend the day enjoying the sunshine, summer villas, and clear blue waters of Capri Island, known locally as the Pearl of the Mediterranean. Capri sits on the south side of the Gulf of Naples and is a popular destination. Ancient Romans used the island for summer villas for the Empire's rich and famous, while the Greeks called Capri the 'Isle of Sirens.' In the morning you'll be picked up from your hotel and transfer to the port of Piano di Sorrento. Departure to Capri, sailing along the Sorrento coast. Along the way, you will admire the ancient fishermen village of Marina Grande, the ruins of a roman villa near Bagni della Regina Giovanna, the natural waterfall that flows from the rock, and other interesting attractions along the coast. Arrival to Capri and tour of the island by boat with stops to visit the Marvelous Grotto, the White Grotto, the Green Grotto; along the way you will admire the Natural Arch, the Villa Curzio Malaparte, the Faraglioni rocks, and the Lighthouse of Punta Carena.

There will be a couple of stops for swimming and snorkeling, and a relaxing break with snacks and drinks offered on board. Stop from 3 to 5 hours to visit the island on your own. Departure from Capri to Sorrento with final happy hour and limoncello tasting. Return to the port of Piano di Sorrento and transfer to your hotel.

 The stop at the Blue Grotto may not be included in the itinerary of this tour due to the long waiting time.
