HANOI STREET FOOD TOUR WITH GUIDE (D)

Start / End point: Your Hanoi Hotel

Departure time: 15:00
Duration: 4 Hours

You'll be collected from your hotel.

Start the day at one of the inner city's finest local 'Pho', Vietnam's national dish. Large choices of "pho bo" (beef noodle soup) and "Pho ga" (chicken noodle soup) are available.

Continue to one of the city's last remaining 'wet markets' where a huge array of produce is sold. The market is abuzz with shoppers buying what they need for the days meals. Everything from fresh tropical fruits, an abundance of fragrant herbs, fresh meats, fresh flowers and even live fish and frogs are sold!

Vietnamese cuisine is highly regarded as one of the world's best, but few realise the variations that are found in the cuisine. At the market, sample some of the available dishes for a second snack today. Then walk through the backstreets where small vendors set up their stalls along the road. Take a rest whilst enjoying some excellent street food including 'Banh xeo', and 'bun cha' (fresh rice noodles with grilled pork and herbs) or 'hoa qua dam' (fresh fruits).

Walk down the Old Quarter's streets and enjoy a cup of Vietnamese coffee or tea before returning to your hotel.

You'll depart from your hotel for Hanoi's Old Quarter also known as the '36 streets'. Take a walking tour through charming Hang Be Market and around Hoan Kiem Lake. This bustling area of narrow streets and alleys is home to literally thousands of small businesses and shopkeepers. It's a great place to explore with plenty of photo opportunities all around you.

Continue on to the Temple of Literature. In 1076 Quoc Tu Giam, Vietnam's first university, also referred to as Van Mieu, was established within a temple to educate Vietnam's royalty, mandarins and members of the elite. The university functioned for an incredible 700 years and its gardens and well preserved architecture offer a fascinating glimpse into Vietnam's past.

Close by is the mausoleum of the historic figure and father of modern Vietnam, Ho Chi Minh (viewed from outside) The presidents house on stilts where he lived from 1958 to 1969, his former home illustrates the modesty of this Vietnamese revolutionary.

HIGHLIGHTS OF HUE

Start / End point: Your Hue hotel
Departs: 8:00am
Duration: 3.5 - 4 hours

Take a short, but insightful, tour through historic Hue. With hundreds of years of history, it would be impossible to see everything in a day but this tour gives a fabulous overview of the city's culture and history.

Kick off this half-day tour in Hue with a visit to the UNESCO-Heritage Imperial Citadel. Roam the expansive grounds, admiring buildings that reflect the pomp and ceremony of the once-mighty Nguyen Dynasty. Hear the stories of the majestic buildings and intriguing former emperors. Take a look at areas damaged by conflicts, both ancient and modern, and learn of Hue's role in Vietnam's military history.

Continue by cyclo to get a closer look at the tranquil gardens and traditional buildings of the areas. Arrive at Tinh Tam Lake, a lake filled with lotus flowers. Meaning 'Peace of Mind' the emperors used to relax along the water's edge and is still a popular place for Hue residents to wind down at the end of the day.

Then leave the city centre and travel through Hue's beautiful countryside. Arrive at Khai Dinh's tomb for a stroll. One of the Nguyen Dynasty's former emperors, this remarkable complex blends traditional Vietnamese in design with European touches making it unique from the other tombs in Hue.

Before heading back to your hotel, take time to browse the stalls at Dong Ba Market. The market is teeming with colour and a great place to catch a glimpse of everyday life in modern Hue.
